Dear Examiner Brown:

We are concerned that we have not received any written communication from you confirming that finality has been withdrawn with respect to the last action and that a new action would be mailed for the above-identified application. You told Tom Martin from our office last week that you would be sending a notice by August 5. Please send us written confirmation immediately that finality has been withdrawn. If we do not receive written confirmation from you, we will file an appeal brief by August 12, 2002.

Your prompt attention in this matter is requested.

Regards,

Todd M. Martin
